Re: United States v. Manny Lizardo, 25 Cr. 33

Dear Judge Carter,

The Government writes respectfully in advance of the conference scheduled for tomorrow, April 29, 2025, at 2:00 p.m., in the above-referenced case. The parties are engaged in active discussions regarding a potential pre-trial resolution in this case and request an adjournment of approximately 60 days to allow such discussions to continue. The Government respectfully requests that time be excluded through the date of the next conference and submits that such an exclusion is in the interest of justice for the reason stated above. The Government has conferred with counsel for the defendant who has confirmed that counsel consents to the exclusion of time here.

Respectfully submitted,

JAY CLAYTON
United States Attorney
